

The Associated Press

Dwight Loving, in handcuffs, is escorted to military-police van during trial at Fort Hood, Texas, March 30.

Obsessive love led to 2 killings

Dwight Loving left Rochester for Army, descent into brutality

By Steve Mills

Democrat and Chronicle

In the case of U.S. vs. Pvt. Dwight J. Loving, there are two things about which there is little argument.

The first is that the 20-year-old Rochester native robbed two convenience stores at gunpoint, fatally shot two cab drivers and tried to kill a third in a 31-hour Texas crime spree that netted him a little more than $100.

The second is that he did it for a woman.

The woman is Nadia Pessina Simmons, an Italian im-

TURN TO PAGE 12A